

JAPAN
SETO UCHI OR INLAND SEA

FROM A JAPANESE GOVERNMENT MAP.
 Soundings by the Officers of H.M.S. Acton, Dove, and Leven, under the orders of Comd. J. Ward.

1861.

SOUNDINGS IN FATHOMS.
 Magnetic variation in 1862, nearly stationary;
 Natural Scale 1:100,000.

Drawn by Edw. L. Powell, Hydrographic Office, on the Scale of the Japanese Map, & Engraved under the Direction of Capt. G.A. Balfour, R.N.

*Depth to Misaki in 26 1/2 fms. a distance of
 236 1/2 miles.
 Apr 26 Aug 66*

*Note: The soundings reported on this Chart were the property of the Japanese Government and are not subject to any copyright.
 The names of islands and places are those used on the Japanese charts.
 The names of the British Admiralty are those used on the charts and in the Hydrographic Office.*

SKETCH OF THE WUSIMA CHANNEL

SKETCH OF THE HARIMA NADA (THE WHIRPOOL)

By J.S. Watts, Master, R.M.S. Ringdove 1861.
 By Lt. Col. C. Dalrymple, R.M.S. Dove 1861.
 By Lt. Col. C. Dalrymple, R.M.S. Dove 1861.

HIOGO & CORVI BAYS

By J.S. Watts, Master, R.M.S. Ringdove 1861.
 By Lt. Col. C. Dalrymple, R.M.S. Dove 1861.
 By Lt. Col. C. Dalrymple, R.M.S. Dove 1861.